This summer holiday, my friend Irvin and I wanted to do something different. Instead of wasting our time watching TV and playing computer games as usual, we decided to go camping.

After getting permission from our parents, we began planning our trip. We made a list of all the food and supplies we would need and spent an entire day searching for the best place to buy our camping equipment. In the end, our tent, stove and sleeping bags cost a lot of money, but it was worth it.

When the day finally arrived, my Uncle Bob was kind enough to drive us to the campsite after he got off work. We knew it would take us a couple of hours to get there and Irvin and I grew more and more excited as we got closer to where we were going. It was dark by the time we arrived, but we didn't care. We waved happily at Uncle Bob as he drove away. Then, after a bit of trouble and a lot of laughter, Irvin and I set up a tent and lit the cooking stove. As we sat having our first meal at the camp – tinned spaghetti – we both agreed it was the best food we had ever eaten. A short time later, warm and comfortable in our sleeping bags, we quickly fell asleep and dreamed about what our great adventure would bring.

1. The boys normally spend their summers outside.
2. They asked their grandmothers to let them go camping.
3. Nobody helped them plan what to buy.
4. It took the boys a long time to find the supplies they needed.
5. Their camping equipment wasn't expensive.
6. Irvin's father took them to the campsite.
7. The boys had left home in the morning.
8. The boys had some problems getting their campsite ready.
9. They had fresh food for their supper.

Dialogue A.

- Excuse me, where can I find something about the history of the theater?
- Let me see. Right... there we have some materials on Shakespeare in theater. Next: the most famous international drama schools.
- I have to write an essay and I probably should start with Shakespeare's time.
- That sounds logical, but there was also theatrical performance in the ancient world. Would you like to see some texts on related theme in Ancient Greece?
- Yeah, I'd really like to.

Dialogue B.

- Tommy, what are you looking for in your bag?
- Nothing, Mrs. Simpson.
- Please don't get distracted. There is very little time left before the bell. Just choose it to check your writing to be sure there is no mistakes.
- Ok, I will. But I'm not Shakespeare and there will be mistakes anyway. You never give me very high grades.
- You have a fair chance to improve your academic performance if you were only more attentive.

Dialogue C.

- Feeling cold?
- Oh, no. On a country a bit hot. There are so many people here today. And one needs to be attentive and fast to avoid crashing into anyone.
- I think you do brilliantly.
- The ice is very good today and the music too. Why are you still wearing your boots? Come on! Get on the ice!
- Not today. I hurt my knee a couple of days ago. And I don't want to take any risks. We are going to the theater today, by the way. How about joining us?

Dialogue D.

- How much did you say the tickets were?
- I'm not going to tell you and you shouldn't have asked! It's your birthday present.
- I know I know I just...
- Are you saying that you don't like the performance?
- No, I can't be so categorical, some songs were really nice. And I like the city dancer's performance but some songs don't appeal to me at all.
